WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Members of Trinity Reformed Church,

*This week you may have received a letter, along with a copy of a letter from 2013, from Mary Garzelloni, niece of Dee Drenth. Dee is an elderly member of Trinity Reformed currently living in the American House in Spring Lake. In this recent letter Mary restates her unhappiness with the legal arrangements made by Dee and husband Bob (aka "Tiny") Drenth many years ago. In 2013 we acknowledged Mary's complaint, but informed her the legal arrangements for the care and custody of Dee and her estate were legally binding, and not subject to change. This is still the case today. Dee is well cared for by the generous volunteer efforts of several Trinity members. Pastor Randy, Elder Mike Leak and other Trinity members visit Dee regularly. We have all observed that Dee is well cared for and quite happy at the American house. Be assured that Mary Garzelloni was responded to appropriately and that Dee Drenth is well cared for.
